

The Law and the Poor
in Canada

edited by

Irwin Cotler and Herbert Marx

BLACK ROSE BOOKS
LES ÉDITIONS THÉMIS

Montreal

CONTENTS

Introduction	7
1 Perceptions of Poverty Law and its Implications for Legal Services	19
2 The New Orthodoxies	43
3 Practising Law for Poor People	59
4 Alternative Organizational Models for the Delivery of Legal Services	71
5 The Courts and the Poor	89
6 Dialogue with Community Representatives	99
7 Criminal Law and the Poor	113
8 Consumer Law and the Poor	117
9 Welfare Law and the Poor	121
10 Housing Law and the Poor	125
11 The Role of Legal Services and Citizen Participation	129
12 Law Schools, the Professional Bar and Poverty	133
13 The "Advocacy" Role of Poverty Lawyers	137
14 Community Participation in Poverty Law: The Self Help Process	141